

WAHH is born of the will not to treat the remains of cloth as garbage from the first day that I produce YOYOGA, of course; the box of remains soon filled my little atelier and that forced me to think about doing something useful with them and finally, that enthusiasm led me to discover how to make clothes without using a pattern: Deconstructivism Textil®